LOCATION

Lancaster House is situated fronting Chorley New Road, (A673), close to Bolton Town Centre, Bolton School and David Lloyd Leisure Centre.

There are a number of professional occupiers nearby, in particular Solicitors and Accountants.

Chorley New Road is well served and provides access in and out of Bolton's Town Centre, is approximately 3 miles of junction 6 of the M61 motorway and 1 mile of the A666 St Peters Way.

DESCRIPTION

Lancaster House comprises a a period 3 storey garden fronted mid terraced office property, of traditional solid brick construction set beneath a pitched slate roof covering. The property has been subjected to a full refurbishment yet retains many original features, both internally and externally.

Internally, the property is arranged over ground, first and second floor levels together with ancillary storage and further office in the basement.

The offices are spacious and suitable for 1-4 person offices. There is a communal kitchen situated at ground floor level and the communal WC's are located at first floor. The accommodation provides for a good mix of cellular offices available on an "all inclusive" basis.

The property has recently undergone a refurbishment, providing for high quality offices, whilst maintaining many period and original features. The property also benefits from a recent rewire and new combi-boiler.
