LOCATION

The property is situated fronting Chorley New Road at the junction with Bedford Street, Bolton and overlooks Queens Park. Other professional office users are within the vicinity.

See Plan.

DESCRIPTION

The offices are currently occupied by Cowgills small business unit whom are relocating to offices at Middlebrook.

An attractive detached office building that originally was two separate dwellings before being converted to its existing use.

Internally there are offices to ground, first and second floors with extensive basement storage areas.

The property is constructed of traditional brick elevations under a pitched slate roof and a mix of timber and PVC window frames.

There is a separate entrance off both Bedford Street and Chorley New Road and two internal staircases hence it could be split back into two properties.

Externally there are landscaped areas to the front and car parking to the side and rear of the property.
