- Land to the south of Bolton Town Centre
- Close to Orlando Village student accommodation
- Established commercial area
- 0.078 Hectares (0.194 Acres)
- A scheme has been drawn up for a 6-storey, residential development. Please enquire for further details.

LOCATION

The subject land occupies a prominent location, at the roundabout junction of Thynne Street, Orlando Street and Foundry Street, approximately half a mile to the south of Bolton Town Centre.

The land is located within a predominantly commercial area, with industrial and office premises to the north, east and south. Orlando Village Halls of Residence, providing student accommodation for the University of Greater Manchester, is located immediately to the west of the subject land.

DESCRIPTION

The subject land is the former Cattle Market Hotel site, though there is no longer any building in situ. The site is cleared, with a part cobble stone surface, with the remainder being unmade and overgrown land.

The Land has potential for redevelopment (subject to planning) and could suit either residential, or commercial schemes. Our client has had a 6-storey residential scheme drawn up, please enquire for further details (elevations and layout at rear of this brochure).

The proposed redevelopment is the erection of a new six storey Mixed use building comprising one E(g)(i) Class of Use (Offices - 29m2) on part of the ground floor and six floors containing seventeen two bedroom C3(c) Class of Use residential apartments. (Total floor area 1476m2), together with on-site parking facilities.

Access to the land is currently via a double gate from Foundry Street, with additional road markings for an access from Thynne Street, though there is currently no gate to this side of the site.
