- Available with vacant possession
- Highly regarded location within neighbourhood setting
- Parking for 4 vehicles on site.

LOCATION

The property is located on New Hall Lane in the well-regarded Heaton suburb of Bolton. The immediate area is predominantly a residential use area, with nearby properties mainly being of 3/4 bed semi-detached and terraced properties. However, there are some commercial occupiers nearby including office, retail and café operators.

The property lies between Chorley New Road (A675) and Chorley Old Road (B6226), both of which are prominent public transport links

DESCRIPTION

Comprising a traditional constructed office premises set beneath a pitched and slated roof covering of part brick and part rendered elevations.

Internally, the office provides an open plan accommodation at ground floor with a central access door, WC and kitchenette.

At first floor, there are two further offices plus WC and kitchen.

Two additional offices are located on the second floor.

At the rear is a single garage which has been converted to a lettable/office or storage area. There are 4 parking spaces in total.

The accommodation is well maintained and heated by gas central heating.
